

Advanced Professionals Managed Services

Say hello to your secret small account weapon.

Advanced Professionals Managed Services solves the industry dilemma of making small account management efficient and profitable while supporting opportunities to grow your books. Imagine no more worrying over staffing issues, reinventing workflows or accommodating more volume.

Key Services

- Renewal cycle management
- Incoming client calls
- Creation and maintenance of forms, docs and contracts
- Benefits collateral
- Compliance and regulatory management and expertise
- Additional services as needed

Our Team

The Advanced Professionals Managed Services team offers an unprecedented level of customer service. In addition to more than 25 years' experience, our account managers are completely focused on client support and are reinforced not only by an internal team, but also some of the best insurtech available in the market today. Advanced Professionals Managed Services exceeds customer expectations.

Who is Eligible?

As the insurance marketplace gets more competitive, brokers must be more innovative than ever to set you apart from the competition.

Advanced Professionals Managed Services is available to employee benefits broker clients:

- $5k to $15k in annual premium
- Located in California, Washington state and Alaska
- Any industry, including cannabis

Why Advanced Professionals Managed Services?

Increased Profits

The Advanced Professionals model generates increased retention rates and enables more relationship development while significantly increasing client satisfaction.

Aggressive Growth

With Advanced Professionals, brokers can grow small account books without hampering service to key agency accounts. AP's programs are customizable to individual needs to ensure aggressive growth and retention.

Integrated Technology and Support

Whether you choose to white-label our services or use our brand, clients get the same high-level customer service via our account staff and proprietary technology.

Set yourself apart from the competition

Learn more about how Advanced Professionals Managed Services can increase your value, profitability, service levels and more. Contact us at ManagedServices@advprofessionals.com

